

Lindsay Smith Winner - Vin Blanden Memorial

Lindsay Smith Winner – Vin Blanden Memorial

Mike...What was the breeding of your winner?

Lindsay...It is a combination of my Busschaerts with 1/4 of Max Taylor's No1 Pair

Mike...Did you race him again after his win?

Lindsay...Yes he raced again at the next Coober Pedy but the wind was very unfavorable that day, but was still early considering that.

Mike...What races did he have leading up to his win?

Lindsay...He raced a few early races and then was set for the Vin Blanden, as this cock was placed 10th Assoc at this racepoint last season.

Mike...How often do you road train your birds?

Lindsay...I toss them every Monday from just the other side of Whitwarta.

Mike...Do you follow any particular feeding program during the year?

Lindsay...I like to feed a variety of grain throughout the year with as many variables as possible, including Beans and Lentils.

Mike...Do you follow a particular medication program?

Lindsay...Not in particular I only medicate as necessary, I do not follow a pattern at all.

Lindsay Smith's Racing Lofts

Mike...What changes would you like to see in our sport?

Lindsay...I would like to see the races a little longer especially on the north-northwest line, i.e. 2 of The Twins or 2 at Coober Pedy, also I would like to see 1 line flying on a rotational basis.